Driving north on Hwy 9, signaling to merge right to turn E on Hwy 204. I heard a noise, saw to my right the black car. Immediately noticed she was talking on her cell phone. I stopped in lane, pulled up and over to right side of road.

I got out of car to make sure other driver was ok. She was still on her phone, and was dialing. I asked her if she was ok again, and she said yes. I expressed ~~my~~ concern that she had been talking on her phone while she ~~was~~ driving, and she called me an "asshole". I got out my information to exchange with her, and at that point she never spoke to me again. She continued crying, told whomever was on the phone I was yelling at her. At ~~no~~ point did ~~I~~ I ever yell, I ~~only~~ asked if she was ok. And later who she was talking to. Never once did she speak to me. Later her mother showed up after cops ~~of~~ arrived.

I was already in the right turn lane on Hwy 9 at the intersection at Frontier Village when a man driving a Red Jeep Laredo (license plate: 9767VA) merged into me and side-swiped my car. The damage pushed my driver's side mirror in, and caused what appear to be surface damage. He accused me of being the one to hit him & was yelling at me in a disrespectful tone of voice. I was shaken up and terrified of the man so I called the police to come intervene.
